THE ADVOCATES (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1962

No. 1 of 1962

Promulgated by the President in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to amend the Advocates Act, 1961.

Whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Advocates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1962.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Act 25 of 1961 to be temporarily amended.—During the period of operation of this Ordinance, the Advocates Act, 1961, shall have effect as if after section 57, the following sections had been inserted and had always been inserted, namely:—

“58. Special provisions during the transitional period.—(1) Where a State Bar Council has not been constituted under this Act or where a State Bar Council so constituted is unable to perform its functions by reason of any order of a court or otherwise, the functions of that Bar Council or of any Committee thereof, in so far as they relate to the admission and enrolment of advocates, shall be performed by the High Court in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Until Chapter IV comes into force, a State Bar Council or a High Court performing the functions of a State Bar Council may enrol any person to be an advocate on a State roll, if he is qualified to be so enrolled under this Act, notwithstanding that no rules have been made under section 28 or that the rules so made have not been approved by the Bar Council of India, and every person so enrolled shall, until that Chapter comes into force, be entitled to all the rights of practice conferred on an advocate under section 14 of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (38 of 1926).

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, every person who, immediately before the 1st day of December, 1961, was an advocate on the roll of any High Court under the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (38 of 1926) or who has been enrolled as an advocate under this Act shall, until Chapter IV comes into force, be entitled as of right to practise in the Supreme Court, subject to the rules made by the Supreme Court in this behalf.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal by sub-section (2) of section 50 of the provisions of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879 (18 of 1879) or of the Bombay Pleaders Act, 1920 (Bombay Act XVII of 1920) relating to the admission and enrolment of legal practitioners, the provisions of those Acts and any rules made thereunder in so far as they relate to the issue and renewal of the certificate of a legal practitioner shall have effect until Chapter IV comes into force and, accordingly, every certificate issued or renewed to a legal practitioner (who is not enrolled as an advocate under this Act) which is or purports to be issued or renewed under the provisions of either of the aforesaid Acts during the period beginning with the 1st day of December, 1961 and ending with the date on which Chapter IV comes into force, shall be deemed to have been validly issued or renewed.

59. Removal of difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, particularly in relation to the transition from the enactments repealed by this Act to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the purposes of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) An order under sub-section (1) may be made so as to have retrospective effect from a date not earlier than the 1st day of December, 1961."

RAJENDRA PRASAD,
President.

R. C. S. SARKAR,
Secretary, to the Government of India.

AN

to amend the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, in its application to Punjab.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Land Acquisition (Punjab Amendment) Act, 1953.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of section 17 of Act I of 1894.—In section 17 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Act I of 1894) as applied to the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh (hereinafter referred to as the "said Act"),—

(i) to sub-section (1) the following explanation shall be added:—

Explanation.—This sub-section shall apply to any waste or arable land, notwithstanding the existence therein of scattered trees or temporary structures, such as huts, pandals or sheds;

(ii) for sub-section (2) the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2) In the following cases, that is to say:—

(a) whenever owing to any sudden change in the channel of any navigable river or other unforeseen emergency, it becomes necessary for any Railway Administration to acquire the immediate possession of any land for the maintenance of their traffic or for the purpose of making thereon a riverside or ghat, station or of providing convenient connection with or access to any such station;

(b) whenever in the opinion of the Collector it becomes necessary to acquire the immediate possession of any land for the purpose of any library or educational institution or for the construction, extension or improvement of any building or other structure in any village for the common use of the inhabitants of such village, or any godown for any society registered under the Himachal Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1956 (Act 13 of 1956) or any dwelling house for the poor, or the construction of labour colonies under a Government sponsored housing scheme, or any irrigation tank, irrigation or drainage channel, or any well, or any public road, the Collector may, immediately after the publication of the notice mentioned in sub-section and with the previous sanction of the appropriate Government enter upon and take possession of such land, which shall thereupon vest absolutely in the Government free from all encumbrances:

Provided that the Collector shall not take possession of any building or part of a building under this sub-section without giving to the occupier thereof at least forty-eight hours notice of his intention so to do, or such longer notice as may be reasonably sufficient to enable such occupier to remove his movable property from such building without unnecessary inconvenience."

3. Amendment of section 18 of Act I of 1894.—To section 18 of the said Act the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(3) Any order made by the Collector on an application under this section shall be subject to revision by the Court of the Judicial Commissioner as if the Collector were a Court subordinate to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner within the meaning of section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908)."

4. Amendment of section 28 of Act I of 1894.—In section 28 of the said Act for the word "six" the word "four" shall be substituted.

5. Amendment of section 34 of Act I of 1894.—In section 34 of the said Act for the word "six" the word "four" shall be substituted.
